Greater Brookfield Chamber of Commerce announces 2018 Board of Directors at 60th Annual Meeting

Brookfield, Wis., December 6, 2017 – The 500+-member Greater Brookfield Chamber of Commerce’s (GBCC) 60th Annual Meeting was held on Thursday, November 30th at Sheraton Milwaukee Brookfield, Brookfield, Wis. The event was a wonderful celebration of the Chamber supporting and growing business in the greater Brookfield area.

Carol White, President and CEO of GBCC said, “This year we were especially pleased to recognize many long-term members of the Brookfield Chamber for their continued support over the years. We also had the opportunity to recognize each of our 2017 Business Person of the Month honorees. It is rewarding to see the amazing impact our organization can have on the success of the businesses that are members! And, as always, at every annual meeting we are pleased to welcome our 2018 board of directors, and to acknowledge our outgoing board members for their past years of service.”

Elected board of directors are: Board Chair – Spence Mather, Securant Bank & Trust, Hartland; Past Board Chair, Lori Choinski, Gerald Nell Inc., Waukesha; and Board Members Lynn Braden, Winter, Kloman, Moter & Repp, S.C., Brookfield; Robert Feest, Robert J. Feest Insurance Agency, Elm Grove; Matt Geik, G&G Juice Co. (Jamba Juice), Brookfield; Scott Haen, Johnson Bank, Brookfield; Tiffany Mitchell-Detvan, Edward Jones Investments, Greenfield; Julie Roberts, AT&T, Milwaukee; Gjeret Stein, Sensible Gurus, Brookfield, and Carrie Witzel-Crook, Corner Bakery Café, Wauwatosa, WI.

Spence Mather, incoming Board Chair, said, “After 15 years of being a part of the GBCC, it is an honor to step into this new role. I am very thankful for the opportunity to further serve our almost 600 member businesses and continue expanding the professional network that supports us all!”

The Greater Brookfield Chamber of Commerce is the largest membership business organization in Brookfield, representing the interests of business in Brookfield and the surrounding area. The Chamber also recognizes the value in creating collaborative partnerships with other chambers in Milwaukee and Waukesha Counties. These partnerships expand the reach, influence, and visibility of the Greater Brookfield Chamber of Commerce and provide additional benefits to its membership.
